A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy, tired and worn out contigually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 1615 S. W. Ghasatch Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. In stamps for cloth-bound copy. Formerly sold for $1.50 to extent of over 500,000 copies. Every family should possess a copy for ready reference in case of sudden illness or accident. It is illustrated with hundreds of wood-cuts and several colored plates. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Interparliamentary Congress.

The Interparliamentary Congress in Brussels yesterday resumed the discussion of the American proposition for the establishment of a permanent international parliament.

Count Albert Apponyi, representing Austria-Hungary, spoke in support of the principle of the American plan, but pointed out that the magnitude of the scheme required mature consideration. "No international parliament," the count said, "has any chance of acceptance by European nations if it interferes with the principle of their sovereignty and independence. Therefore, it is necessary to examine the membership of the powers and the scope of action of the proposed international parliament and reconcile it with the independence of the parliaments of the various powers. The American idea of an international parliament to precisely define international law is a grand and bold movement characteristic of American initiative, but American boldness must be combined with European caution. Europe hails American participation in the world's work, as it gives us accession to the marvelous material, strength and energy of the United States; but we ask the Americans to consider the present state of Europe and the possibility of entanglements and to defer the project until a committee of international specialists can maturely study it."

Count Apponyi closed his remarks by moving the reference of the proposition to a committee, with instructions to report in three months. Messrs. Moon, of Pennsylvania, and Waldo and Goldfogle, of New York, strongly supported the American project.

Philip Stanhope, M. P., in behalf of the members of the British House of Commons, approved the reference of the proposition to a committee, saying that Europe was not sufficiently advanced to accept the American plan without careful consideration.

The French Deputies also seconded the motion to refer the proposition to a committee.

Representative Richard Bartholdt, of Missouri, received an ovation when he accepted the reference of the proposition to a committee, saying that the Americans desired the fullest investigation into the merits of the American proposition. Thereupon the proposition was referred to a committee of specialists from the parliaments of the various nations.

Moonshiners Attack Preacher.

Rev. E. V. Goad, of Forum, Franklin county, was captured by moonshiners at Mill Creek, Sunday night, forced at the point of pistols to repeat his afternoon sermon denouncing the evils of moonshining, and was then chased out of the settlement by his assailants. Several other ministers in recent years have had similar experiences.

Mr. Goad had been warned that if he delivered the sermon Sunday he would be driven out of the district. Undismayed by the threat, which carried a promise of personal violence, he filled his appointment and preached an extemporaneous sermon, which vividly pictured the evils of the illegal liquor traffic of the Virginia mountains.

At the conclusion of the service scores of women and children crowded around him eager to shake his hand and beg his prayers for the salvation of their fathers and brothers from the curse of whisky.

After the service he accepted the invitation of Mrs. Mary Maxey, one of his devout followers, to visit her home. While the family and their guests were kneeling in prayer at the house the doors were burst open, and three mountain moonshiners entered. They asked him what kind of sermon he had preached that day. He replied that it was like all other sermons. At this three pistols were leveled at his head with the demand that he repeat it or die. Rev. Mr. Goad pleaded that his life be spared. With the pistols still pointed at him he was made to repeat his sermon. He then rushed up the stairs hoping to escape from his persecutors. Mrs. Maxey and her daughter fainted. The minister jumped from a window and escaped through the mountains.

Mr. Goad, who is a frail man, had been repeatedly informed that a sufficient force would support him in his fight against moonshiners, but when the trying moment came they were not there, and he followed in the wake of his predecessors.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the oldfashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in in case of cholera infantum. For sale by Gibson & Timberman, and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Father and Son Win Sisters.

Throughout the recent session of the Seventh-Day Baptists of the World, in progress in Shiloh, N. J., it has been noted that Rev. E. A. Main, dean in the Baptist Theological Seminary, has been at times a bit absent-minded. This is explained now by the fact that the dean a day or two ago announced his engagement to Miss Martha Dixon, one of Shiloh's fairest daughters. Dean Main met Miss Dixon a week ago. He was so well pleased with the comely young woman that he introduced his son, an earnest worker among the Baptists, to her sister, Miss Mabel Dixon. "My son," said the dean, a day or so later, "I have determined to wed Miss Dixon." "And I, father," responded young Mr. Main, "have decided to marry her sister." Father and son shook hands solemnly at this, and then separately and collectively saluted the young women. Another sister of the Misses Dixon is also said to have become engaged to marry a worker in the convention.

The Pulajanes.

The rebellion of the Pulajanes in the Island of Samar is the chief subject treated in the report of Brigadier-General William H. Carter, commanding the department of the Visayas, for the year ending June 30th last. For the entire year the natives were in a state of turmoil, due to the reign of terror inaugurated by Colonel Daguhob and his Pulajane insurrectos, who drove the peaceable natives from their homes, burned villages and conducted a most successful campaign of bushwhacking warfare for the first five months of the rebellion.

During the year thirty-eight pitched encounters between the soldiers and the natives occurred. The bodies of 446 insurrectos were counted in all the engagements, many more having been killed whose bodies were not found. A far greater number are estimated to have been wounded, many of whom died later. The prisoners captured number 90. Seventy-nine Americans were killed. The backbone of the rebellion was broken June 4th.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 30, 1905.

WHEN Baron Komura, the Japanese Foreign Minister and peace envoy, yesterday accepted the peace terms offered by the Emperor of Russia he astounded the world. M. Witte, the Russian envoy, expressed unbounded artonishment; he did not believe there was the remotest chance that the Czar's offer would be accepted. The British Foreign Minister, when he heard of it, likewise declared himself astonished; so was France and so were the people of Japan. All of which goes to show that the inscrutable Komura probably acted with surpassing wisdom. In speaking of the peace treaty the Philadelphia Record wisely says:

In the fever of the fray the sympathetic world has become intoxicated with its pro-Japanese enthusiasm. It looked for the splendid yellow fighters to press on in their victorious progress until the power of Russia should become a memory. It demanded that Russia should cry out for mercy and pay for peace. But the other side of the matter is the one that will be historical. It must be remembered that the price of victory in a great campaign is approximately as great as the penalty of defeat. Japan has won, has always won, but for her triumphs she has paid a staggering price. Her loss in blood and treasure has been nearly as great as Russia's and she cannot nearly so well as Russia afford it. To keep up but for a little while longer her stupendous undertaking would mean more than the mere loss of money and depreciation of credit; it would mean hunger for the patient millions who labor in the rice fields for the glory of their Emperor. That is a price that is too dear to pay. Furthermore, Japan has won all and more than she proposed at the outset to win; her greatest dream has been more than realized. She demanded that Russia give up her hold on Korea and Manchuria. That she has forced Russia to do so, and has given half of the island of Sakhalin to boot. There is her material advantage, and it is a greater one, politically and commercially, than was secured by Bismarck in the Franco-Prussian war, despite the immense indemnity that he wrested from France. Two things more prove the wisdom of Komura. Japan has an unbroken record of victories. Making peace, this record is inviolate; letting the war go on, another battle might destroy it; indeed, there is probably an even chance that the tide would turn and all that has been won would be swept away. There is nothing to prove that Oyama is not now exactly where Lee was before Gettysburg. Again, the very astonishment of England, France and Germany at the conclusion of peace shows that it was well for Japan to make a peace. When a neutral is surprised by peace it means that a neutral is dissappointed. The desolation of the far East held promise for these great cormorants of Europe. The continuation of the war, whoever the victor, would mean the financial ruin of Japan and Russia. And out of this ruin Europe would take the spoils. Dissappointing as it must be to the pro-Japanese enthusiasts that Komura has forgone the indemnity, the world must applaud his wisdom and his magnanimity. If there were any further need for the proof of the high civilization of that nation which less than half a century ago was reckoned as barbaric it is in this very merciful concession.

SINCE SANARELLI'S annogncement in 1897 that he had found the microbe which caused yellow fever, several other bacteriologists have sought for it, supposedly in vain. Every now and then somebody else professes to have isolated the organism, but confirmation of their success has been lacking. A new story of the same kind now comes from New Orleans. Dr. John Archinard is the latest claimant to the honor of identifying the germ, and perhaps he has really done so. Still, it would be wise not to credit the report until he supplies details of his work. Without these, no opinion can be safely formed.

WHATEVER the reciprocity convention in Chicago may stand for, it certainly has demonstrated that the western farmers are no longer unanimous for "standing pat." These are not propitious times for a western "stand-patter" to launch a presidential boom. The Philadelphia Record in this connection says Secretary Shaw would do wisely to reconsider his intention of resigning the Treasury portfolio. There, at least, he will remain in the public eye.

GENERAL KUROPATKIN is reported to have resigned. He did not succeed in 'dictating terms of peace at Tokio," as he promised, and his "luring on" tactics were not crowned with success. But he did his best in an impossible situation, and will pass from the military scene with the sincere respect of his former foes, if not of the self-seeking friends who so hampered his campaigns.

PLEADING guilty to selling adulterated meats, five dealers at Madison, Wis., were fined yesterday. A better penalty for such men would have been a jail sentence with a diet of their own adulterated meats.

The democratic State central committee will meet in Richmond on or about September 7th, and at that time will open and canvass the returns. State Chairman Ellyson has received official reports from nearly all the county and city chairman, but will not allow them to be opened, save in the presence of the State central committee.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., August 30.

The surgeon-general of the army this morning received a telegram from the surgeon in charge at the army post of Barrancas, Fla., just off Pensacola, stating that the mayor of Pensacola had officially announced that yellow fever had broken out in that city. The Marine Hospital Service this morning received confirmation of the report that yellow fever had broken out in Pensacola. A telegram from State Health Officer Porter states that there are three cases, all convalescent, and all possible precautions have been taken to prevent a spread of the disease. The whole block in which the patients are located has been quarantined and fumigated.

The Interior Department announced this morning the appointment of Edwin Merwin, as Superintendent of the Indian Warehouse at New York City, to succeed Superintendent Wilson who was recently "fired" by Secretary Hitchcock for malfesance in office. It is stated in an official report submitted to the Secretary by Indian Inspector McNichols that Wilson was "doctoring" the payrolls of that office, that several bartenders of nearby saloons were carried on the payrolls as clerks receiving payment as such without rendering the government any service, and that Wilson was also guilty of playing politics by carrying a number of New York political Tammany grafter on the rolls as clerks.

Advices received by the State Department from Minister Merry, at San Jose, Nicaragua, state that William C. Albers, the American in custody in that country, is confined at Ocotal. The specified charges against him are resistance offered government officers, threatening to shoot government officers, and insulting the president of Nicaragua. The department has received many complaints from relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Albers in this country to the effect that Mrs. Albers is confined with her husband. Minister Merry's report today states that Mrs. Albers is now en route to this country.

Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte today ordered a general court martial for Commander Young, who was in command of the gun boat Bennington at the time of the recent disastrous explosion in San Diego harbor. The charge is "neglect of official duty." He also ordered a court martial for Ensign Charles T. Wade, in accordance with the recommendation of the court of inquiry.

Officials here are speculating as to the locus of the treaty signing, which will cap the efforts of the peace plenipotentiaries. The treaty here is referred to variously as the "Treaty of Portsmouth" and the "Peace of Portsmouth" and apparently Washington will be omitted from the popular terminology surrounding the Russo-Japanese agreement. Just what historians and writers on international affairs will call the document remains to be seen. There is a possibility that the signatures of the eminent Russians and Japanese will be affixed to the duplicate copies in Washington. If this should be suggested to M. Witte and Baron Komura by President Roosevelt, it will doubtless be quickly arranged. The activity now being displayed in renovating the diplomatic room in the State Departmdnt indicates that the chamber where many treaties have been consummated will shortly be in new dress and ready for the most notable function.

Dr. D. E. Salmon, Chief of the bureau of animal industry of the Department of Agriculture, was today acquitted of all wrong doing by Secretary Wilson, who had caused an investigation to be made of his connection with the Howard Label Company that had contracts with the Department. It was also charged against the bureau that the systems of meat inspections favored the trust against the independent packers.

George Cobarth, the Germantown blacksmith who is charged with criminal assault upon Miss Rose Holley, of Washington, will be given a preliminary hearing at Rockville, Md., next Monday.

The case of Caleb Powers, of Kentucky, convicted of the murder of Governor Goebel of that State, reached the Supreme Court of the United States today. The papers were received and the case docketed for consideration at the October term. The ground for removal was that Powers could not get a fair trial in the State courts.

Mysterious Disappearance.

The disappearance of Robert Castleberg, of Washington, is as great a mystery to his relatives and friends in that city as to the diamond firms in New York with whom he is said to have had dealings. It was stated by one of his intimate friends last night that neither his wife nor his father has the slighest idea where the young man is, although they are using the best means at their disposal to ascertain. His wife, who resides in Washington, is nearly prostrated, and Mr. Castleberg, sr., has employed the best detective agencies in the country to trace his son. They believe he will be found within the next few days, possibly ill in some hospital, or temporarily detained in some institution in a wandering condition of mind. A person familiar with the matter said last night that it is highly probable that Mr. Castelberg's mind became affected by his losses at the races, or from some other cause, and that he is undergoing treatment, hoping to recuperate before appearing again and engaging in business. Friends of the young man scout the idea that he is in hiding for any financial reasons, as the means of the family are sufficient to make good any sum, should he have obligated himself in business transactions.

Attempt to Hang Negro.

Andrew Holbrook, a negro, who attempted to break into a movable lunch wagon belonging to F. L. Townsend, a Newport News grocer, narrowly escaped death at the hands of the grocer. Townsend had put a rope about the negro's neck and, it is said, was about to string him up, when persons who had been attracted to the scene by the negro's cries, interfered. Townsend's wife in night dress, seated on an empty box, is alleged to have been encouraging the grocer, saying: "Hang him, I never saw a nigger hung in my life."

Yesterday it developed that Holbrook is wanted in Danville on the charge of house-breaking. S. L. Barksdale, another negro who was with Holbrook at the time of the attempted robbery, was arrested yesterday, and it is believed that he, too, is wanted in Danville. Both men have served terms in the penitentiary.

END OF THE WAR.

As was stated in the Gazette, the war between Russia and Japan was brought to a close yesterday and the "Treaty of Portsmouth" has become historical. The part played by President Roosevelt has added materially to his fame. The civilized world is rejoicing over the action of the peace envoys, and over a million of men will now beat their swords into plough shares and their spears into pruning hooks. Peaceful industries will supplant the horrors of war, and many believe the two nations who have shed each other's blood during the past year and a half will eventually become allies.

According to the peace terms Russia makes the following concessions:

Protectorate over Korea, with all that this implies.

Evacuation of Manchuria, leaving Japan and China a clear field.

Fishing rights on the Siberian coast.

Commericial and military entrance in the mainland of Asia,

The following concessions are made by Japan:

Its demand for a money indemnity to cover cost of war.

Its demand for the cession of Sakhalin, the compromise dividing the island.

Its demand for the interned Russian warships.

Its demand that Russia hereafter limit its naval strength on the Pacific seaboard.

By the terms of the agreement it is said at the State Department at Washington that this country will get an open door in Manchuria and Korea, and everything else contended for by the late Secretary Hay.

Preliminary steps have been taken to arrange an armistice.

The peace treaty will be completed by the end of the week.

Expect in official circles at St. Petersburg and Berlin, the news that peace has been made will be received throughout Europe with unbonnded satisfaction and rejoicing. Hope of these results had been practically abandoned since it was known there was no chance of Russia yielding to Japan's principal demands.

The idea that Japan would again abandon the fruits of victory after repeatedly declaring the opposite intention was hardly considered among the possibilities of the situation until two days ago. Then it was whispered in certain diplomatic circles that a secret agreement existed between Japan and China by the terms of which the latter agreed to pay the expenses of the war for the restoration of Manchuria in case Japan failed to compel Russia to pay an indemnity. There is no adequate authority for this rumor, but it is received with a certain amount of credence, especially since the news has come of Japan's amazing sacrifice of her principal claim.

It is pointed out that such compensation by China to the country which conquered and restored to her this great province would be only just and equitable. It would be unreasonable to expect Japan to perform this great service as an act of magnanimity, and that she is entitled to receive the full expenses of her campaign, minus only the value of Port Arthur, which will remain in Japanese hands.

No one in the diplomatic world ascribes the Japanese decision to considerations of magnanimity or humanitarianism. They do, in most cases, credit her with wise statesmanship. Russia's claim that she was able to carry on a defensive campaign until Japan was completely exhausted is not regarded as a mere bluff by the most impartial European authorities. Some go so far as to say that Japan in the future would never have been able to get terms so favorable as she obtained today. This idea is coupled with the suggestion that Russia may interpret Japan's withdrawal as a confession of weakness, which might create danger of future Russians aggression.

It is recalled that Japan's original announcement was that the principal motive in demanding an indemnity was to insure lasting peace. It has been represented that Great Britain has been putting pressure on her ally to make peace. This is untrue. England has earnestly desired peace, principally on account of the European crisis and in order to curb the Kaiser's adventurous spirit. Japan is fully aware of this, and she is in full sympathy with the British wishes, but she has not been called upon to sacrifice her own interests in this or any other respect.

It is in its effect upon the European situation that peace is the most welcome. The news from Portsmouth relieves grave anxieties in several capitals. There was a serious danger of a renewal of the peril to European peace which alarmed the world early in the summer. The personal relations between King Edward and Emperor William are so strained as to amount to positive hostility. The Moroccan crisis is again becoming serious. The fact that Russia will now be able to place a large force on her western frontier at short notice must have a restraining influence of immense value during the developments of the near future. Europe welcomes peace for her own sake and therefore with a sensation of intense relief.

Winner of Prize Wanted.

A dispatch from Athens, Greece, says that the owner of the ticket which has won the $17,500 prize in the Greek National Fleet lottery has not claimed the money, although the successful numbers have been published for a month. It is now discovered that No. 373,533, which won, was sold by the Cephalonia branch of the Ionian Bank, Limited, and as a number of British men-of-war were anchored in Cephalonia at the time when the ticket was sold, it is thought possible that some British sailor bought it, and, having forgotten it, is unaware of the good fortune that has befallen him. If the ticket is not presented within four more months, it will be canceled, according to the law, and the amount it has won will become the property of the Greek Government.

So flagrant and general have become the violations of the postal laws by the improper use of the post card, that high postal department officials are in favor of a repeal of the law, passed two years ago, providing for the post cards. The violations arise from the sending through the mails of post cards upon which are delineations or language of an indecent, lewd, lascivious or obsence character.

As soon as the working drawings are completed ground will be broken for the erection in the heart of the Tenderloin district in New York of what is intended to be the largest hotel in the world. It is to occupy a plot of ground 75 by 200 feet, running through from 32d to 33d street at a point 175 feet west of Sixth avenue, and if the present plans of its projector, Al Adams, go through it will be forty-nine stories high.

Today's Telegraphic News

PEACE ECHOES.

Portsmouth, N. H. Aug. 30.—There is a growing suspicion that Russia has agreed to pay to Japan a sum of money in lieu of a cash indemnity. Upon what it is based or how large the amount cannot, of course, be learned. There was a very significant feature of yesterday's conference of the envoys that has almost been lost sight of. It was the dismissal of the secretaries during certain of the deliberations over some of the Japanese demands, which had been left open from a previous meeting. Why this secrecy should have been maintained, if it was a clear case of the delivery of the ultimatum and its acceptance, is a mystery incapable of solution, at this time. It is understood that the envoys deliberated in the strictest privacy for over an hour.

Another suspicious feature is the smoothness with which the negotiations were conducted on a question which had been the stumbling block since the first meeeting; namely, that of indemnity. From the most accurate reports it appears that M. Witte laid down an ultimatum, which was accepted promptly by the Japanese envoys. This may have been due to the fact that the Japanese had become thoroughly convinced that further parley on this disputed demand would be futile.

But those who remember that at the Saturday afternoon conference, also, the secretaries were excluded, and the envoys occupied the greater part of three hours in secret deliberation, are inclined to attribute to the day's proceeding a previous understanding.

The Japanese envoys yesterday entered into a traffic arrangement with the Russians, whereby direct connections will be established between the Chinese Eastern Railway, which is now Japanese property, and the Siberian-Manchurian Railroad, which belongs to Russia, in order to provide through transportation for freight and passengers.

It hardly seems possible that any indemnity could be concealed in that arrangement, but it must be remembered that equal treatment of Russia on the Chinese Eastern Railway would prove a valuable concession, for which it is not improbable that Russia would be willing to pay handsomely. The oriental mind is a crafty one. Then, again, the exact details relative to the understanding reached on the railroad demand is being hedged about with more secrecy. It is hardly impossible, that such an arrangement will be written into the treaty, but it is quite possible in the opinion of some observers, that at a future date it may be found that Japan is obtaining from Russea financial advantages which, while of great value, have not been disclosed at this conference.

No time is being wasted by the plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan crowning peace upon their accomplishments of yesterday.

The special committee of two councillors from each side, Dr. Maartens for the Russians, and Mr. Dennison for the Japanese, selected to draft the peace treaty, have already made headway in the work assigned to them. With the same spirit of push that has characterized every action of the envoys since their arrival here, this highly important duty has been taken in hand with a purpose of bringing about a final adjournment of the conference on Saturday. Three secretaries from each mission are assisting the councillors. They mapped out the line of work last night, and bright and early this morning they were at their desks, deeply immersed in the stack of papers before them, from which is to be extracted important information for insertion in the treaty. It is doubtful if the peace envoys officially visit Washington. Coupled with their desire to depart for home at the earliest possible moment is the fact that New Hampshire is insisting upon the further privilege of entertaining the envoys and the members of their suites a few days in the White Mountains.

During all of last night and this morning the telephone wires were burdened with messages of congratulations from all over the world, addressed to M. Witte. One arrived from the Czar just before M. Witte was served with breakfast, and conveyed to him in the most cordial terms the thanks of his imperial master, for the great work he has accomplished in securing peace while preserving the honor and dignity of the Russian empire.

An equally cordial message came from the French Premier, M. Rouvier, and all the chancellors of the European continent added their words of praise and thanksgiving. From Russian friends in St. Petersburg and Moscow many adulatory dispatches came, and the peace societies of the world joined in the chorus. There were not so many congratulatory dispatches received by Baron Komura, at the Japanese headquarters, but those that came were equally as sincere and earnest in their expressions.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 30.—A stack of telegrams five inches thick has accumulated upon Secretary Loeb's desk and is growing as fast as the telegraph force at the executive office can take the messages from the wires.

Men of all nations and in all walks of life are tumbling over each other to congratulate the President upon his victory for peace. Dispatches have been received from King Edward and Emperor William and a number of prominent European officials, as well as ambassadors in this country representing all nations. Cardinal Gibbons and Mr. William Jennings Bryan have also sent their congratulations.

The Peace Treaty.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 30.—The rough draft of the first two articles of the peace treaty was completed before noon, today. The order in which the convention will present the several agreements reached between the two countries will differ from that in which Japan presented her original demands.

The completed clauses are:

1—Evacuation of Manchuria by the armies of both Russia and Japan. An early date has been fixed, but the exact day will be left to the decision of the military commanders in the field, Oyama and Linevtich. It will be written into the treaty as soon as the envoys are informed of the agreement.

2—Recognition of Japan's predominant influence in Korea, politically and commercially. Under this article, the only restriction placed upon Japan is that she must not fortify Mazampo harbor commanding the straits of Korea.

The third and fourth articles, which will be taken up immediately after lunch, are understood to provide for the territorial integrity of China and the maintenance of the principles of the "open door" in that empire.

There will be no meeting of the envoys until this draft of the completed treaty is ready for their inspection.

The fact was developed today that the withdrawal of the cash indemnity demand was not the only one that Japan was required to waive before Russian opposition to the conclusion of peace was removed. She will not be permitted to erect military posts or fortifications upon the boundary line between Korea and Siberia.

The existing Russian military posts from the Pacific to the Manchurian line are, however, to be permitted to remain, Russia will be allowed to retain her present military establishment in Harbin and Vladivostok. It is further mutually agreed that there shall be no fortifications by either government on the Island of Sakhalin. This is a distinct loss to the Japanese, inasmuch as it will deprive them of the power to effectually neutralize the military independence of Vladivostok and the ability to absolutely command Tusagaru straits.

Peace News in Europe.

London, Aug. 30.—In diplomatic quarters the news of peace did not cause so much surprise, because most of the diplomats had felt that peace would result from the conference. The optimistic views of the members of the diplomatic corps as telegraphed to the Publishers' Press thoroughly cover the views held by the diplomats. On the question of indemnity, it is estimated here that Japan will really receive about $200,000,000, through the reimbursement she will receive for the care of Russian prisoners, and as represented by the value of the Harbin-Port Arthur Railway, as explained in previous dispatches. Japan's action in yielding on her indemnity demand has called forth the greatest praise from all Europe.

London, Aug. 30.—The first news which Europe received yesterday that the peace envoys had come to an agreement and that a treaty of peace would be signed came through the Publishers' Press. This "beat," conveying as it did information which was greatly desired, is regarded as one of the greatest achievements in the journalistic line of recent years.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 30.—The news that peace had been agreed to did not become generally known here until this morning, owing to the lateness of the hour when the word arrived yesterday. The information reached a few of the summer gardens and theatres at midnight and was received by the people who heard it with manifestations of joy. At every place the health of M. Witte, the Russian envoy who concluded the peace, was drunk with champagne. There is general rejoicing today among the people over the news. M. Witte's name is on the lips of every one, and he has become the foremost man in Russia, hardly excluding the Czar. The fact that he was able to avoid the payment of an indemnity to Japan is regarded as a great victory, although the cession of half of Saghalin has caused some adverse comment.

Wreck on the Southern.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 30 —It is reported that a wreck has occured on the Southern Railway near here. A quarantine guard is said to have been killed and many persons hurt. The train is reported to have turned over.

Augusta, Ga., Aug.—The Southern passenger train for Charleston was wrecked crossing a street in this city at seven o'clock this morning by a switch springing under the last day coach, completely upsetting that car and derailing two others. The Pullman directly behind did not leave the track. Quarantine Guard Frank J. Murphy was killed instantly and flagman George J. Lott died of his wounds. Several passengers in the overturned coach were slightly injured. Midway in the coach sat a young woman with an infant and as the coach was turning she jumped out of the window on the high side, preventing any injury to the baby but sustaining several cuts herself.

Washington, Aug. 30.—At the offices of the Southern Railway the following was given ont in regard to the wreck at Augusta, Ga., this morning:

"Rear coach on South Carolina and Augusta train No. 18 passed over switch and turned over at Reynolds street crossing in Augusta, about 7 o'clock this morning. F. J. Murphy, police health officer, resident of Augusta, was killed. Injured: George Lott, flagman, both legs cut off; J. A. Brown, employe Augusta yards, back sprained; M. Kalliskie, passenger, Augusta, side slightly hurt. The train had just left the Augusta station and was going only about two miles an hour."

Yellow Fever.

New Orleans, Aug. 30.—Again the news from the country parishes holds the attention of the health authorities. Besides the more than thirty cases found along bayou Barataria, in Jefferson parish, a new case is reported from Port Barrow, three from Patterson, five from Kenner, two from Hansom city, four from Amelia, one from Boeuf, two from Adoyne plantation near Youma, and three from St. Rose.

The number of new cases in the city yesterday being only 45, the same as on the day previous, the health authorities announce they were more sanguine of success in stamping out the disease. There were 7 deaths, two more than on Tuesday.

New Orleans, Aug. 30.—At 11 o'clock today 17 new cases of yellow fever and three deaths from the disease were reported.

Watching the Eclipse.

Madrid, Aug. 30.—It is estimated that over 200,000 foreigners are in Spain the witness to eclipse of the sun today. The railroads are running special trains today to northern towns where the eclipse is total. The streets of Madrid have the appearance of a holiday occasion. Nearly every one has stopped work to witness the eclipse and the presence of hundreds of foreigners has given a gala appearance to the town. The weather has been especially fine, adding to the pleasures of the day's events.

Woman Killed by Train.

Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—An unknown woman was struck this morning at West Berlin, N. J., by the 60-minute flyer from Atlantic City, and instantly killed. Her body was literally torn into fragments and the engine upon arrival at Camden presented a gruesome sight, blood and bits of flesh being plastered all over the front of it. The engineer declares the woman deliberately stepped upon the tracks as the flyer neared the West Berlin crossing.

Vesuvius Active.

Naples, Aug. 30.—Mount Vesuvius is in full eruption. Ominous rumblings are heard in the interior of the crater and the volcano is throwing out a great flow of lava. The flow is down the right side of the cone. Dispatches from Messina, Sicily, say that the old crater on the island of Stromboli is also in eruption and ejecting an enormous flow of lava. Dense smoke hangs over the island and this has thrown the inhabitants into a state of panic.

Acquiesced in Demands.

Tangier, Morocco, Aug. 30.—The Sultan has acquiesced in the French demands, thus averting a clash between the two countries. The trouble grew out of the arrest of the chief of the Algerian settlement of Ghar. The Sultan claimed jurisdiction over all Algerian settlers in Morocco, but France repudiated his claim and demanded an indemnity and the release of the prisoner.

Ripped Open by Circular Saw.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 30.—Adam Remich, 29 years old, died in a hospital this morning. Yesterday afternoon his body was ripped open by a circular saw, at the Carpenter Steel Works, and the fact that he did not expire instantly, was considered remarkable by the physicians who pronounced it one of the most notable cases of vitality on record.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 30.—James Flanagan, left fielder and hard hitter of the Springfield base ball club, of the Connecticut League, has been sold to the Pittsburg base ball club, of the National League, for $1,500. Flanagan will play out the season with the Springfield team.

London Stock Market.

London, Aug. 30.—Trading on the stock exchange opened brilliantly and buoyantly. All stocks are advancing. Russian bonds went up 3¾ per cent, and Japanese bonds advanced from half a point to two points.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

New raids on the illegal liquor selling hotels in Asbury Park were inaugurated by the city police today.

An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate Governor Keingerberg, of Moghuleff, Russia. A bomb was thrown at the Governor's carriage, but it failed to explode. The bomb thrower escaped.

The explosion of the boiler in a factory located near Vigo, Spain, today caused the building to collapse. The list of casualties has not been completed but is feared that many persons have been killed or injured.

Rudolph Williams, an engineer, employed in the Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, shot and killed Regent S. Hanna, aged 24, at her home in that borough this morning and then attempted suicide. The shooting was the result of a quarrel, which was the outcome of the woman's refusal to marry the man.

Husbands Ignored.

A dispatch from London says that a new meaning has recently been given to the simple little personal pronoun "I." "Smart" women nowadays never use the first person plural when speaking of themselves and their husbands, their plans, possessions and intentions. "I am going to Hamburg," means "I and my husband are going." "I have taken a shooting-box in Scotland, and shall entertain there," does not mean a lady hostess alone; it includes the husband. But he is never mentioned nowadays. To acknowledge him, mere man, as the provider of yachting and trips abroad, of motor-cars, shooting-boxes, and country houses, is to completely destroy yourself socially. No "smart" society woman ought to be seen often with her husband, and to speak of him makes her "impossible."

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. Democratic Banquet.

The rally of the democrats of the Second ward at Messrs. Schwab's hotel, on north Royal street, was, as had been anticipated, an enjoyable affair throughout. The large rooms of the hostelry and the arbor-covered yard were utilize, and Mr. Frank Price, whose labors were aided by energetic auxiliaries, saw that all present had a good time.

The crowd began to assemble about 8 o'clock, and later Dr. W. M. Smith, who acted as master of ceremonies, ascended a platform which had been improvised and called the company to order. Seated near the chairman were Mayor Paff, ex-Mayor Henry Strauss, Mr. Hubert Snowden, President of the Common Council: Mr. James R. Caton, Delegate to the Legislature; Councilman J. Y. Williams, Alderman, J. M. Hill, Mr. G. H. Hayden and ex-Mayor Downham, who during the evening made speeches.

Each made reference to the earnest manner in which Mr. Frank Price had labored for the success of Messrs. Martin, Swanson and Caton in the recent primary election. The gathering was in the nature of a love feast, nothing but kind words being spoken of the defeated candidates and each of the speakers expressed the belief that these candidates and their supporters would be in the front ranks next November in aiding the ticket nominated last week.

After the speaking those present gathered around the banquet board and enjoyed the feast. Special tables were laid for the speakers in the private dining hall.

Toasts were drunk to the success of Hon. Thomas S. Martin, Hon. Claude A. Swanson, Mr. James R. Caton and the other democratic nominees. The assemblage dispersed with the toasts to "mine host," the Messrs. Schwab, who served such a fine banquet, and to the democratic party.

Preseverance Tent No. 1098, Independent Order of Rechabites, held an interesting meeting Monday night last. About 75 members of Onward, Purity and Victory tents of Washington and Langdon, D. C., paid a fraternal visit to Preseverance Tent, arriving about eight o'clock.

Chief Ruler W. L. Griffin called the assemblage to order and announced that the regular order of business would be dispensed with and the initiation of several candidates would be conducted by the visiting members of the order, as follows: P. C. R., Mrs. Lola Marks; Chief Ruler, Miss Mary Fora; Shepherd, Mrs. Francis Sheckels; Deputy Ruler, Miss Mary Cordell; Levite, Miss Imogene Gillette; Inner Guard, Mr. Zallie Wright. The ceremonies were under the supervision of High Tent Chief Ruler John C. Moore and Secretary W. W. Cordell.

After the initiation ceremonies were over and social intercourse was indulged in, the tent was again called to order and the following programme was rendered: Address, C. M. Griffin, sr.; duet, Mr. T. J. Sullivan and Miss Fowler; recitation, Miss Mary Ford; solo, Mr. McIhaney; recitation, Miss Hoyar; solo, Mr. Zollie Wright; address, Mr. W. W. Cordell; solo, Mr. Frank Dulin; address, Mr. L. D. Lyles; duet, Miss Fowler and Mr. Sullivan; address, Mrs. Lydia Murray. Later Mr. H. Bloch's delivery wagon arrived with refreshments which were served by a committee consisting of Mesdames E. Lyles, A. J. Bartlett and Sarah Lyles, assisted by a bevy of pretty young ladies. The visitors left on the 11:15 train for their homes greatly pleased with their evening's experience.

Mr. Summers succeeded Mr. Agnew as collector of the Sixth District before the end of the fiscal year, and, therefore, the report gives the amount collected by Mr. Agnew for that portion of the year he had served when Mr. Summers came in, and the amount collected by Mr. Summers from the beginning of his term of service to the end of the fiscal year.

Death on a Train.

Capt. George Lemmon, an ex-Confederate soldier and officer on Gen. William H. Payne's staff, died on a Southern train in Fairfax county yesterday afternoon en route to Rectortown. Captain Lemmon had been for several years past an inmate of the Soldier's Home at Pikesville, Md. He was a brother of Mr. J. Southgate Lemmon, of Baltimore, who married a daughter of Col. Robert Dulany, of Fauquier county. Captain Lemmon took the Southern train in Washington, and at the time said to the conductor that he was feeling very badly. A doctor was procured for him, but he died shortly after leaving this city. The remains were turned over to an undertaker at Manassas and will, it is said, be shipped to Maryland for burial.

Rolled Overboard.

Simon Mason, colored, fell asleep last night between ten and eleven o'clock on Mr. DeW. Aitcheson's wharf and later rolled overboard. In his descent from the wharf he struck the rail of the tugboat George W. Pride and broke one of his legs. The crew of the tugboat went to Mason's rescue and pulled him out of the dock. The ambulance was summoned and the injured man taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment. The driver of the ambulance in proceeding to the wharf started down Prince street from Fairfax, where preparations are being made for the laying of vitrified brick. The vehicle collided with the obstructions on the square and was somewhat damaged. A number of people went to the rescue and after leading the horse to a place of safety extricated the ambulance.

Personal.

Mrs. A. C. Weech and son, William, are spending a few days at Knoxville, Md., and Harper's Ferry. Mrs. Weech delivered an illustrated address in the M. E. Church on Sunday.

Miss Janet Rowen has gone to Edinburg, Va., for a week.

Mr. Charles H. Fletcher and Miss Laura V. Bontz were married this morning at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. George W. Bontz, Rev. Dr. Fisher, of the Baptist Church, officiating.

Eclipse of Sun.

The eclipse of the sun took place at an early hour this morning and was quite visible in this city. The path or track of the eclipse runs in a northwest and southeast direction through Labrador, thence down and over the Atlantic, cutting directly through the heart of Spain. The first contact was visible at 5:38 o'clock this morning and last contact at 7:28 o'clock. The greatest obscuration was at 6:33 o'clock, at which time the moon covered five-eights of the sun's surface. Dark photographic plates and smoked glass were employed for the purpose of viewing the eclipse. Several photographs of the eclipse in all its phases were made by photographers in Alexandria.

Police Court.

[Justice Julius Pelton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A young man, arrested by Officer Patterson for fighting, was fined $5. Another young man, arrested by the same officer for a similar offense, was dismissed.

George Lewis and Peter McCruy, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Labor Day Excursion.

District Assembly, No. 66, Knights of Labor, will give an excursion to Marshall Hall next Monday (Labor Day). Boats will leave this city at 10.30 a. m. and 2.30 and 7 p. m. Arrangements have been made for an enjoyable excursion for all who avail themselves of the opportunity to enjoy the holiday by a ride on the river and participation in the amusements at Marshall Hall. Several enjoyable features will add interest to the occasion. An Alexandria lady, who has won two foot races heretofore, will again enter a contest.

Death of Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. Fannie E. Hill, widow of Dr. James C. Hill, died yesterday evening at her home, Mount Wellington, near Accotink, in Fairfax county, aged seventy-three years. She had been sick for two weeks, having suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Hill was a daughter of the late Moreau Lamoine, of Fairfax. She had a large circle of acquaintances throughout this section of the State and was justly esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves ten children, four sons and six daughters. Her funeral will be held Thursday afternoon.

Sent on to Grand Jury.

William Jeter, colored, who was arrested last Saturday by J. F. Glover, Deputy U. S. Marshal, for assault on Henry Garnett, was given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner J. W Wormley in Alexandria county yesterday evening, and sent on to the grand jury. His case will come before the January court. Garnett, it will be remembered, had his head seriously cut by Jeter in the National Cemetery at Arlington.

Rescued from Drowning.

Edgar, the seven-year-old son of Mr. G. Pulman, fell overboard from one of the city wharves a few days ago. Several men were standing near, but as none of them could swim they could do nothing toward saving the child. A little son of Mr. Robert Wenzel, however, jumped into the water and succeeded in saving the boy, who was about to sink the third time.

The Ferry Slip.

The ferry slip and freight and passenger buildings which have for several weeks been in course of construction by the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company are now practically completed. Some interior work and painting remains to be done, and in a few days' time everything will be ready for the arrival of the new ferry steamer which was launched Monday.

Leg Crushed.

Returned.

Messrs. J. S. Douglas, C. W. Bell and party have returned from a trip to the lower river made on Mr. Bell's new naptha launch which he recently built. The boat is a fine specimen of marine architecture and behaved beautifully during the trip.

Death of Mr. H. B. Turner.

Mr. Henry B. Turner died suddenly at his home in New York on the evening of the 28th instant. Mr. Turner married Miss Loulie Addison Hester, formerly of this city, and a sister of Mrs. Benoni Wheat, and was well known here.

Sale of Leather Plant.

Negotiations, which have been in progress for several weeks, were practically completed yesterday for the sale of the leather plant of Cover & Drayton, of Winchester, Chicago, and Philadelphia, to the United States Leather Company, known as the "trust," which is controlled by the Armours, of Chicago, and others.

It was stated last night that the price agreed upon was $1,900,000, for the business and plants of the leather firm, which include four large tanneries, one at the Narrows, Giles county, one at Moorfield, one at Lost City, and another at Capon Bridge, in the mountain district of West Virginia, from twenty to thirty miles west of Winchester.

The tanneries employ several hundred men, most of them men of families. Practically the entire community in some sections depend upon the tanneries for their living. It is understood that the sale will not interfere with the operation of these plants.

Representatives of the firm of Cover & Drayton, and of the leather trust, conferred yesterday afternoon at the office of E. Holmes Boyd, counsel for the former, who had just returned from a trip to Philadelphia, New York, and elsewhere, in the interest of his clients. The papers were then put in shape for the transfer. The meeting lasted several hours, and the transaction created much interest in financial circles. Thomas Cover, sr., who established the firm that bears his name thirty years ago, owns about three-fourths of the stock. The other members of the firm are Henry E. Drayton, of Philadelphia, and Loring A. Cover, of Winchester.

Drowned in Sewer.

During the heaviest downpour yesterday afternoon little Bessie Kamper, 19 months old, was playing merrily in the rain on the sidewalk near her father's grocery, at Division and Gold streets, Baltimore. A moment later she lost her balance, slipped on the wet curb and was struggling in the water in the gutter. She was rolled over and over in the murky tide, which rushed in torrents down the gutter, bearing her with it, and she was sucked into the gurgling, yawning mouth of an inlet sewer.

Despite the strenuous efforts made by the police, fire and street cleaning departments no clue to the little girl or trace of her body or clothing was discovered. It is supposed that she was either carried down to Jones's falls or that her body was caught in some crevice in the sewer.

The accident occurred shortly before 6 o'clock, when the rain was pouring in torrents, while the street was practically deserted.

Attempt to Wreck Train.

Just before daybreak yesterday passenger train No. 11, southbound over the Southern Railway, was derailed near South Boston, the engine and all of the train except the sleeper leaving the rails. Slight injuries were sustained by C. D. Farmer, the engineer, and by Fireman Durvin. The passengers were somewhat shaken up, but no one was hurt. It is thought that the derailment was due to an effort to wreck the train, an investigation seemingly showing that spikes had been drawn and one of the fishplates removed. It is said that there is a clue on which to work and that some arrests may be made soon.

Woman Will Soon be Known.

When Criminal Court convenes in New York in September the identity of the woman to save whose honor a young man posed as a burglar, and donned convict's stripes will be revealed. A motion will be made for a new trial for the young man on the ground of newly-discovered evidence.

That the woman who is now willing to sacrifice her standing in society to release the young man who saved her good name is a member of an old New York family was learned definitely yesterday. That she is a member of one of the most exclusive church congregations was also established. Her family name was given to one of the city streets.

From a reliable source it was ascertained that the young man in the case was an utter stranger to the husband of the woman. The husband did not know him when he saw him in the house, and had no idea that the young man was a visitor there. The home of the young man is in the West and he was a student in an eastern university. He met the woman through an acquaintance when on a visit to New York with college chums.

It is said that the young man is the son of the head of a large manufacturing concern which has branch houses in different parts of the country and that none of his family knows where he is or anything of the circumstances that led him to voluntarily enter prison.

Lew Wallace's Unwritten Novel.

General Lew Wallace had in mind an American novel. He once said that it was his intention to write this story after he had completed his memoirs. His theme was the striving of Americans to accomplish wonderful things in an incredibly short time. His hero was to be a restless American who lived for a few years in Europe, then in Australia, in Africa and in South America and who finally, after years of wandering, returns to his own country only to start again upon his journey, never satisfied, never happy, the spirit of an Indian within him and the childlike desire to see new scenes. In each of these countries his hero was to accomplish worthy deeds, and when he returns to his own country it is with the intention of leading the life of a son of the soil, but his hero finds he cannot do so. The story would have been suggestive of "The Wandering Jew," with the element of religious controversy eliminated.—Success.

Carried It With Him.

A short time ago a burial took place at sea from one of his majesty's cruisers. As there were no leads with the stores large pieces of coal were attached to the body in their place. All the crew were summoned on the quarter deck for the burial. Just as the body was being lowered Pat burst out laughing. Next morning the chaplain sent for Pat and asked for an explanation of his laughter at such a very solemn time. "Sure now," replied Pat, "Ol've heerd o' many a wan goin' below, but Ol've niver seen wan take 'is coal with un afore."—London Tatler.

Cleverly Evaded.

A wealthy Australian squatter in order to protect his six daughters from fortune hunters left his property to them in equal shares, but decreed that if either married without the consent of the trustees she should forfeit her share to her sisters. When the case came up at Sydney it was found that the six sisters had all married without permission, and thus each had forfeited her share in the property to her sisters, a state of affairs which the ladies doubtless considered highly satisfactory.

Neglected Opportunities.

"I wonder," said Farmer Corntossel, who had just returned from a trip to the big city, "why so many young men insist on not gettin' rich."

"What do you mean?" asked his wife.

"They all want to be lawyers or doctors instead o' bein' restaurant waiters or policemen."—Washington Star.

His Chance.

He (moodily)—Ah, tell me truly, is there anything that hasn't been said already on the subject of love? She (softly)—Probably not, but I am sure, very sure, indeed, everything on the subject hasn't been said to me.—Puck.

The Difference.

Tim—I'm feeling fine this morning. I was up with the lark. Jim—I'm not feeling so fine this morning. I was up with the lark last night.—Detroit Free Press.

An excess of levity is as impertinent as an excess of gravity.—Hazlitt.

Grave Trouble Foreseen,

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists at 50c a bottle.

Colic and Diarrhoea—A Remedy that is Prompt and Pleasant.

The prompt results produced by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy together with its pleasant taste have won for it a place in many households. Mr. W. T. Taylor, a merchant of Winslow, Ala., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and also with men on my place, for diarrhoea and colic and it always gives relief promptly and pleasantly." For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
